Senior Pastor's Message

A father took his young daughter to the grocery store with him. They returned with a box of sugar-laden cookies in addition to the healthful items on his wife's carefully prepared shopping list. Noticing her glare, he said, "This box of cookies has one-third fewer calories than usual." "How do you figure?" she asked. "We ate a third of the cookies on the way home," he replied.

Dear Friends,

We are deep into our annual time of feasting and merriment. This is the time of year that warms people's hearts and expands their waists! It is also a time of lower temperatures and higher expenditures! I want to remind us all of Advent as also a time of preparation and repentance. We seem to do a decent job of preparing by decorating, cooking, buying, and eating but how often do we see Advent as a time for refocusing our priorities and strengthening our relationship with God as we approach the New Year? Think about how much of the original purpose of Advent and Christmas has been hijacked by commercialism and sentimentality. To be sure, the next few weeks are a time of stress as we are stretched and tested in so many ways to meet the expectations we place on ourselves and others place upon us - but what about God's expectations for us during this season? Frederick Buechner in Secrets in the Dark: A Life in Sermons wrote:

Biblically speaking, to repent doesn't mean to feel sorry about, to regret. It means to turn, to turn around 180 degrees. It means to undergo a complete change of mind, heart, and directions. To turn away from madness, cruelty, shallowness, blindness. To turn toward the tolerance, compassion, sanity, hope, justice that we all have in us at our best.

If we can focus on repentance and the characteristics of it, perhaps we will be little less stressed and joyful. My prayer is that we reduce one-third of our frantic scurrying and craziness this season with time in worship and prayer. My hope is that we remember the Reason for the Season. As we journey on The Way to Bethlehem, may we all ready our hearts and lives for the Birth of the Son. God wants us at our best. When it comes to your cookie intake, you're on your own!

Blessings and Lessons -- that's what the month of November has brought me. Tim's original surgery date at Shands in Gainesville was set for 8:00 AM, October 23rd, with check-in at 6:00 AM, so we made motel reservations and drove up the day before. At 7:40 the next morning, Tim was all prepped for surgery, including the IV in place, and ready to be moved to the OR when one of the team doctors came in and said, "I am so very sorry, but this just isn't going to happen today." After realizing this wasn't some sort of sick, perverted, inappropriate joke, it took us quite a while to wrap our brains around this setback. "For everything there is a reason." I mustered up all my patience to see what possible reason for having the carpet yanked out from under us would be revealed in God's timing.

Surgery was rescheduled for November 2nd, and went well. As we feared, however, Tim's lungs weren't quite up to the ordeal, and this is what kept him in Cardiac ICU for several days beyond what was anticipated -- totaling 16 days -- eight days of which he was on the ventilator. That is when our daughter said, "You know what, Mom? It's a good thing Dad's surgery was delayed because I'm not sure his lungs would have made it had his surgery been sooner." What a MAJOR BLESSING! And what a MAJOR LESSON on patience and waiting for God's timing!

Little did we know that God had another surprise in store for us. Just when Tim was to be transferred to the step-down unit, he started experiencing severe abdominal pain. Three days later he went for his second surgery and back to IMC. Another major blessing and another lesson on patience and PRAISE! "Thank you, God, for not permitting Tim to leave this protective medical environment too soon!" As I am writing this, Thanksgiving is just two days away. The nurse just told us Tim will be going home today. So much to be thankful for, and so much rejoicing to do!

With the holidays upon us, may we all take the opportunities available to us here at POUCC to rejoice together as a church family. I will be making my rounds thanking and hugging each one of you for your incredible support and prayers throughout Tim's illness and surgeries. I love you all so very much!

Merry Christmas!

Beverly

Financial Update

Operational Budget as of 09/30/12

	ACTUAL	BUDGET
	Jan.-Oct. 2012	Jan.-Sept. 2012

PORT ORANGE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST PLEDGE FORM YEAR 2013

“Living Generously”

Dear Members and Friends:

The past couple of years have seen changes with new growth and new projects. We are moving ahead as a church family! We need your continuing support to continue to help us with our mission of reaching out while looking up.

We have been diligent and faithful stewards in the past and seek to be so in 2013. The Operations Team has presented a balanced budget to the Council, who has approved it for your consideration and approval at our Annual meeting in January.

We are doing something different, however, this year. Following the trend of churches in our area, we are conducting our primary Stewardship Drive in February (given the large numbers of snowbirds and conflicts with holiday schedules and spending). We know you understand. We realize there are some who wish to make their commitments earlier, so we have placed cards on the Sanctuary table for your convenience. Thank you for your past, present and future support. May God bless you, your family, and our church family in the year ahead.

Sincerely,

Joe Thompson, Chair of Deacons

DEACON'S CORNER

Brothers and sisters, welcome to the Christmas Season and while we are in the spirit of giving I thought I would give you a thought or two. I made contact with an uncle I had not heard from in twenty-two years. I was overjoyed and with the use of technology I was able to connect him with his only sibling - my aunt in West Virginia whom we visited this last summer. Now interestingly enough, the first seconds were angelic as tears were shed over hearing each others voices, but as time went on, miraculously they went into a pattern of talking that was defensive. Why do I share this with you? Well here it is, we are having a stewardship drive completely up to the individual to fill out and place in the collection plate or give to our wonderful secretary. Nothing will help us get a picture of what we will have available going forward better than this drive. Please search your heart. If you are so moved, and I hope you are, fill out the form. By the way, the lines of communication between uncle, aunt and little nephew are better than they have been in years. And yes, we are talking about Jesus and yes I am proud we stayed the course and dared to try. God bless. Joe Thompson

Topics to be presented are the 2013 Budget as well as nomination and election of officers for the year. More details and a list of those nominations to follow in upcoming bulletins. SPECIAL MISSION NOTES

ENDING HUNGER ONE STEP AT A TIME: The Twenty-Fourth Annual CROP Hunger Walk was held Sunday, November 11, 2012. Our drive to collect jars of peanut butter was a huge success. Thanks to all who donated...we collected over 100 jars and had three walkers. What a simple gesture to help end hunger!

“RECIPES FROM THE HEART”: Our Mended Little Hearts group is putting together a cookbook with recipes that we love to cook. They can be family recipes passed down or just your own. The cookbook will be called "Recipes From the Heart". They will be sold at our CHD awareness walk in February. Also along with the recipes, please answer these questions; What does it mean to you to be a grandmother, grandfather, aunt, uncle, or relative of a heart hero? How has your life changed since having them enter your lives? What have they taught you during their lives that has changed you forever? Please also add your first name, who you are related to and how you are related (first names only please), age of child, and diagnosis and survivor or how many surgeries. Please either email them to me or to heartmom11909@cfl.rr.com. Please have your recipes and stories by January 1, 2013. Thank you all for your participation. They will make great gifts and wonderful memories to give our children when they are adults.

MEDED LITTLE HEARTS

Toy Collection Thanks to all who donated to this drive. We collected eight Action Figures, eight Activity Books, two Coloring Books & Crayons, five Dolls, four Games, two Puzzles and one Storybook. We will be delivering toys to the children in the cardiac units at Wolfson's Hospital in Jacksonville and Arnold Palmer Hospital in January. Your generosity will put big smiles on these children's faces. Shannan Wierzbicki

With Advent upon us our Christmas Tree project begins. Once again this year, we are continuing our support of the children of the Palm Terrace School as recipients of the Christmas Tree gifts. There will be two requests for each child: one is for a warm clothing item (Green Tree), such as a hooded sweatshirt, sweater or jacket. The second request will be for an age appropriate book (White Tree). Please make sure you sign the sheet for the child and gift you picked. Also, we will have envelopes for folks who would like to donate funds to help those in need have a nice Christmas Dinner. The Tree is up and the gifts and donations must be in by December 14th so that we may deliver all items to the school no later than December 17th. THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF THIS IMPORTANT PROJECT!

YOUR FOOD BASKET DONATIONS

We continue to collect food items to donate to the Episcopal Help Center. Communion Sundays are designated as “Fill the Food Basket” Sunday. Over 20 bags of were donated on our first Sunday last month. If we all bring a food donation, we will fill the basket each month. Please be generous and make sure all donations have NOT passed their expiration dates (clearly marked on all cans, boxes, and containers). There is a specific need for rice and peanut butter...PLEASE donate ONLY 1 pound bags of rice and 1 pound jars of peanut butter so they can be given to individual families.

SPECIAL MISSION OFFERINGS

The Christmas Fund is a unique Special Mission Offering of the UCC that affords us an opportunity to recognize and honor those who served our beloved Church. One of the special aspects of the fund is that the donations do not support programs, make grants to institutions, or fund advocacy programs, but rather, they provide direct financial assistance to individual clergy and lay employees. This special collection will be taken up on Sunday, December 23rd and envelopes will be in an upcoming bulletin. Please use the Christmas Offering envelope that appears in your packet for the Church Christmas Collection—which is separate from this Christmas Fund Appeal from the UCC.

MISSION PROJECTS

WHAT A BUSY TIME FOR MISSIONS!

As you all know we had a successful bake sale—thanks to all who baked and bought. Proceeds from the bake sale totaled $1,161...Great Job!

We are going to have two additional projects in the month of December and as always you will do yourselves proud.

1. We will provide toiletries for Palmetto House Christmas stockings headed up by Pat and Jack Hilgenberg. A box is provided for your donations on the table in front of the Sanctuary.

2. The other project is for Palm Terrace School gifts. This will be done in the usual way with a tree having the needs of students and a sign up sheet to indicate which child you have selected. More to follow in the weekly bulletin. This is a project we have done in the past and it is a local assistance to those who have needs (see article on Pg. 6).
3. A reminder that there are two envelopes for your Christmas donations. The one in your tithing box is for the staff and the one in the bulletin will be the UCC Christmas Offering for mission and it is very RED and will be in the bulletin later in December (see article above).
4. I am in need of suggestions about our Palmetto Feeding teams. We are presently doing this two Wednesdays a month with only three teams from our church. I would like to have two or three more teams available so that the teams are not over used. It is a project that we have supported for many years and with the changing times there are more mouths to feed and it puts a lot of pressure on those who volunteer to feed them. I am depending on you for your input since this is a church project.

Blessings to all and thanks for your support. (remember the ongoing projects such as socks, Mended Little Hearts, glasses, Pregnancy Crisis Center, coupons, and whatever else we can find to do).

PLEASE HELP: Mission Boxes are located throughout the building. Please remember your gift goes a long way in helping so many who are in such great need.
